with Fly, Killer Banshee Studios and Guests
Location: 21 Grand 416 25th St, Oakland CA 94612
Date/Time: Friday, September 15, 2006 at 7.30pm
Admission: $3-5*

Join Killer Banshee Studios and Fly to celebrate the release of The PEOPs Show DVD Vol. I at 7.30pm, September 15th, 2006 at 21Grand. 100 signed and numbered copies of the limited first edition printing of The PEOPs Show DVD will be available for $20. Killer Banshees Kriss De Jong and Eliot K Daughtry will perform The PEOPs Show live, with an introduction by Fly and additional performances from more PEOPS, including Lynn Breedlove.

The PEOPs Show reinterprets the portraits and stories from Fly's book PEOPS. A live cinema work with original score, The PEOPs Show brings together Fly's art and the words of each PEOP in their own voices. In this collection, John Perry Barlow talks about his agenda of death, and Trina Robbins revisits the '89 quake. Wendy-O Matik shares her tactics for urban composting while John Hall muses on slam poetry, along with many others.

About Killer Banshee: As a duo, Kriss De Jong and Eliot K Daughtry perform live video at events including PeaceOUT and Illuminated Corridor. Known for combining their art with material from collaborators and public domain, their improvisational style of video synthesis mesmerizes audiences and performers alike. Recent projects include work with Lynn Breedlove and Juba Kalamka.
